Hiring Manager
Goldman Sachs

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Engineer – Client Identities role at Goldman Sachs. As a recent graduate skilled in Java, Python, SQL, and RESTful API development, with exposure to cloud technologies such as AWS, I am eager to contribute to building secure and scalable systems that enhance client authentication and sign-in experiences.

I bring strong problem-solving skills, the ability to translate requirements into technical solutions, and a collaborative mindset. Goldman Sachs' focus on innovation and security aligns with my career goals, and I look forward to the opportunity to add value to the Client Identities team.

Sincerely,
Mahammadshoaib Mulla
